2 The following is a partial transcript of a telephone

3 conversation between DONALD W. HILL and SHEILA

4 FARRINGTON, on May 11, 2005.

5 UNINTELLIGIBLE (UI)

6 DONALD W. HILL (HILL): ...and the agenda at, at the

7 Council doesn't look really heavy, it looks fairly

8 light, ah, I think we could be through at a res, a

9 very reasonable hour, and so I think what I'm gonna do

10 right now, ah, go and, and, ah, I was gonna go by the

11 office, but (UI) over there this afternoon. So, I'm

12 gonna go, I wanted to see, 'cause (Stuttering) I'm

13 gonna, I'm gonna try my very best to get you $500, ah,

14 if I have some unexpected money, be able to do more,

15 but anyway. I'm gonna get you $500 today, so that you

16 can, ah, pay that car thing.

17 SHEILA FARRINGTON (FARRINGTON): Ahem, so the wake

18 is, I didn't, how would I have known that, unless you

19 have told me?

20 HILL: Ah, if you'd made inquiry, you probably would

21 have found out.

14 HILL: Some people say we put a lot of stuff on 15 People, that's 'cause we're trying to create a, a feel, an
16 environment, you know?
17 FARRINGTON: You know, ah, when that, that, ah, in
18 the, on the editorial page?
19 HILL: Yeah.
20 FARRINGTON: And then when they have the letters from 21 the, I guess different citizens, or whatever?
22 HILL: Yeah.
23 FARRINGTON: And that one, that said, that LAURA
24 loves Dallas, and all that? She's doing a good job,
25 or something?

1 HILL: Yeah.

2 FARRINGTON: She does, she does not love Dallas.

3 HILL: Nah, she pretty much loves herself.

4 FARRINGTON: Yeah.

5 HILL: But the people, she, she sells it, she sells

6 herself, she sells it.

7 FARRINGTON: But you, on the other hand, love Dallas.

8 (UI). I mean, that's the, you love, you literally

9 love Dallas. You do.

10 HILL: (UI), I...

11 FARRINGTON: You wake up and that's what you get up

12 talking about. That's what you get up thinking about.

13 HILL: That's, that's, that's, that's very true

14 sweetheart.
