FINAL JUDGMENT

Pursuant to the jury's verdict returned on March 17, 2016, this Court renders judgment for Plaintiff Jay Christopher against Defendant DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc., and Defendant Johnson & Johnson, jointly and severally, in the amounts described below:

- $2,128,893 for physical pain and mental anguish sustained in the past;
- $4,967,417 for physical pain and mental anguish that, in reasonable probability he will sustain in the future;
- $0 for disfigurement sustained in the past;
- $0 for disfigurement that, in reasonable probability, he will sustain in the future;

- $2,128,893 for physical impairment sustained in the past;
- $4,967,417 for physical impairment that, in reasonable probability, he will sustain in the future;
- $41,000 for medical care expenses in the past; and
- $20,000 for medical care expenses that, in reasonable probability, he will sustain in the future.

This Court also renders judgment for Jay Christopher for exemplary damages in the amount of $872,000 against Defendant DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc., and $872,000 against Defendant Johnson & Johnson. Although the jury awarded $20,000,000 in exemplary damages from Defendant DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc. and $40,000,000 in exemplary damages from Defendant Johnson & Johnson, Texas law limits the amount a plaintiff may recover in exemplary damages. See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 41.008(b).

This Court further renders judgment for Jacqueline Christopher against Defendant DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc., and Defendant Johnson & Johnson, jointly and severally, in the amounts described below:

- $186,745 for the loss of household services sustained in the past;
- $186,745 for the loss of household services that, in reasonable probability, she will sustain in the future;
- $186,745 for the loss of consortium sustained in the past; and

- $186,745 for the loss of consortium that, in reasonable probability, she will sustain in the future.

Post-judgment interest shall accrue at the applicable allowable rate.

Any relief not expressly granted herein is DENIED. This is a FINAL JUDGMENT with respect to all claims and parties.

SO ORDERED.

Signed July 5th, 2016.
