AMENDED
MISC. ORDER NO. 1

ORDER ESTABLISHING THE PROCEDURE
FOR ISSUANCE OF ORDERS FOR ENTRY ON PREMISES
TO EFFECT LEVY BY INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

It appearing to the Court that the Supreme Court of the United States has construed Section 6331 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to mean that the Internal Revenue Service has the right to distrain and seize property of a taxpayer who neglects or refuses to pay his tax, but does not mean that the Internal Revenue Service may violate the Fourth Amendment by entering private premises for the purpose of distraint and seizure without a valid search warrant. And it further appearing to the Court that the Internal Revenue Service in this district will, in all likelihood, seek a large number of such warrants, it is therefore the opinion of this Court that the following procedure be established for the processing of such requests.

All requests by the Internal Revenue Service for the issuance of a warrant to allow entry on premises to effect a levy for the collection of taxes shall be titled "APPLICATION OF THE UNITED STATES TO ENTER PREMISES TO EFFECT LEVY" and shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, along with an affidavit of the appropriate official of the Internal Revenue Service, which shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, and the order issued by this Court shall be titled "ORDER FOR ENTRY ON PREMISES TO EFFECT LEVY," and shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Approval for filing of the foregoing instruments must be first secured from either the United States Attorney, any Assistant

United States Attorney, the District Counsel for Internal Revenue Service, or any duly designated Assistant District Counsel, and such approval will be evidenced by the signing of the "APPLICATION OF THE UNITED STATES TO ENTER PREMISES TO EFFECT LEVY" (Exhibit A).

These instruments shall be filed with the United States Magistrate, who shall have full authority to issue the appropriate order after finding that probable cause exists to believe that property or rights to property which is subject to levy by the United States pursuant to Section 6331 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is located on, or within, the premises described in the aforesaid APPLICATION AND AFFIDAVIT. The instruments shall be filed by the appropriate official of the Internal Revenue Service who will appear before the United States Magistrate, and give sworn testimony in support of his application. The appearance of an attorney representing the Internal Revenue Service will not be required.

These instruments will be received by the United States Magistrate and filed under an appropriate numbering system and will be kept by the Magistrate and not delivered to the United States District Clerk.

Upon execution of the Order issued pursuant to these rules, the appropriate representative of the Internal Revenue Service will not be required to make a return of execution to the Court.

The foregoing procedures are effective immediately.

SIGNED this 16 day of February, 1979.
