Rule 3

Conduct of trials and Disposition of Civil Cases Upon Consent of the Parties, 28 U.S.C. §636(c)

Upon the consent of the parties and the approval and referral of the district judge to whom the case is assigned a full-time magistrate or a part-time magistrate who serves as a full-time judicial officer may conduct any or all proceedings in any civil case which is filed in this court, including the conduct of a jury or nonjury trial, and may order the entry of a final judgment, in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §636(c). In the course of conducting such proceedings a magistrate may hear and determine any and all pretrial and posttrial motions which are filed by the parties, including case-dispositive motions.

(a) In general

In the course of conducting proceedings in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §636(c) a magistrate shall conform to all applicable provisions of federal statutes and rules, and to the general procedural rules of this court.

(b) Special provisions for the disposition of cases

(1) Notice.

The clerk of court shall notify the parties in all civil cases that they may consent to have a magistrate conduct any or all proceedings in the case and order the entry of a final judgment. Such notice shall be given on the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and shall be handed or mailed to the plaintiff or his representative at the time an action is filed and to other parties as attachments to copies of the complaint and summons, when served. The clerk may serve the parties with a consent form, attached as Exhibit 2 in the same manner and contemporaneously with the notice or upon the request of any of the parties. Additional notices may be furnished to the parties at later stages of the proceedings, and may be included with pretrial notices and instructions.

(2) Execution of Consent.

The clerk shall not accept a consent form unless it has been signed by all parties in a case. The plaintiff shall be responsible for securing the execution of a consent form by the parties and for filing such form with the clerk of court. No consent form will be made available, nor will its contents be made known to any judge or magistrate, unless all parties have consented to the reference to a magistrate. No magistrate, judge or other court official may attempt to persuade or induce any party to consent to the reference of any matter to a magistrate. This rule, however, shall not preclude a judge or magistrate from informing the parties that they may have the option of referring a case to a magistrate.

In the absence of receipt of a consent form executed by all parties within twenty days of the date that all parties have filed answers or have otherwise responded it shall be deemed that consent of all the parties has not been effected, and the cause of action shall proceed before the judge to whom the cause was assigned at the time suit was filed. This provision shall not preclude a judge's exercise of discretion to thereafter transfer the case to a magistrate if the judge be advised that all parties have consented to a trial before a magistrate.

The reference of a civil case to the magistrate for trial by a District Judge shall not preclude the judge from thereafter revoking the reference at any time, and in any such case in which the reference is revoked the case will thereafter be reinstated on the referring judge's docket.

(3) Reference.

After the consent form has been executed and filed, the clerk shall transmit it to the judge to whom the case has been assigned for approval and referral of the case to a magistrate. Once the case has been assigned to a magistrate, the magistrate shall have the authority to conduct any and all proceedings and to direct the clerk of court to enter a final judgment in the same manner as if the judge had presided.

Rule 4

Review and Appeal

(a) Review of case-dispositive motions and prisoner litigation - 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B)

(1) In all matters upon which a magistrate is required to submit a report and recommendations to a district judge the magistrate shall prepare his report and recommendations in writing and shall file the same with the clerk. The clerk shall transmit a copy thereof to the judge to whom the action is assigned and to each of the parties, or to their counsel, if represented by counsel. Each party shall have ten days after service of a copy of the magistrate's report and recommendations in which to serve and file written objections to the report or recommendations to the magistrate, unless a greater or shorter time is fixed by the magistrate or judge. All such objections shall be filed with the clerk and served upon the other parties, as in other cases, and copies thereof shall also be forwarded to the judge to whom the action is assigned and to the magistrate. If the judge shall desire a response to the objections, he shall call upon the other party or parties for a response or responses thereto, and shall fix the time within which such response or responses may be served and filed. All such responses shall be served and filed as required in the case of objections. No objection to a magistrate's report or recommendations shall be sustained unless the other party or parties have been called upon to respond thereto.

(2) The district judge shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the magistrate's report and recommendation to which specific objection is made. However, the district judge need not conduct a new hearing on the issues raised by the objections, but may base his determination upon the record made before the magistrate and may consider the magistrate's report and recommendations. The district judge may also receive further evidence, conduct further hearings, or remand the matter to the magistrate with instructions. After such further proceedings, if any, as the district judge deems appropriate, he may adopt, reject or modify, in whole or in part, the report or recommendations of the magistrate.

(b) Appeal of non-dispositive matters - 28 U.S.C. §636
(b)(1)(A)

(1) In any matter which a magistrate is empowered to hear and determine, a party aggrieved by the ruling of the magistrate may appeal the magistrate's ruling to the district judge to whom the action is assigned. Such an appeal may be perfected by serving and filing within ten days of the magistrate's ruling an application for review of such ruling specifying the grounds upon which the magistrate's ruling is claimed to be erroneous. All such applications for review shall be filed and served upon the other party or parties as in other cases, and copies thereof shall be promptly transmitted to the judge to whom the action is assigned and to the magistrate. The district judge may call upon the other party or parties to respond to the application for review, and no ruling of a magistrate shall be reversed, vacated or modified unless the other party or parties shall have been called upon to respond to the application for review.

(2) No ruling of a magistrate in any matter which he is empowered to hear and determine shall be reversed, vacated or modified on appeal unless the district judge shall determine that the findings of the magistrate are clearly erroneous, or that the magistrate's ruling is contrary to law or constitutes an abuse of discretion.

(3) The ruling of a magistrate in a matter which he is empowered to hear and determine is the ruling of the Court and is final unless reversed, vacated or modified by the district judge to whom the action is assigned, as provided in this rule. An appeal to the district judge shall not operate as a stay of a magistrate's ruling unless so ordered by the magistrate or the district judge, and then only to the extent specifically ordered by the magistrate or district judge. Any party desiring a stay of a magistrate's ruling or any part thereof, pending appeal to the district judge shall first apply therefore to the magistrate from whose ruling the appeal is taken. If the magistrate denies a stay, written application therefor may then be made to the district judge. Any application to the district judge for a stay shall have appended thereto the certificate of counsel that application for the stay sought has been made to the magistrate and denied by him.

(c) Special Master Reports - 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(2).

Any party may seek review of, or action on, a special master report filed by a magistrate in accordance with the provisions of Rule 53(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) Appeal from Judgments in Civil Cases Disposed of on Consent of the Parties - 28 U.S.C. §636(c).

(1) Appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Upon entry of judgment in any civil case disposed of by a magistrate under authority of 28 U.S.C. §636(c) and Rule 3 of these rules, supra, on consent of the parties wherein the parties agreed to appeal any judgment directly to the Fifth Circuit, an aggrieved party shall appeal directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit in the same manner as an appeal from any other judgment of this court.

(2) Appeal to the District Judge.

(a) Notice of Appeal

Upon the entry of judgment in any civil case disposed of by a magistrate when authority of 28 U.S.C. §636(c) on consent of the parties wherein the parties agreed to appeal any judgment to a judge of this court in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §636(c)(4), rather than directly to the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, an aggrieved party shall file written notice of appeal with the clerk of the court within thirty days after entry of the magistrate's judgment, but if the United States or an officer or agency thereof is a party, the notice of appeal may be filed by any party within sixty days of entry of the judgment. Upon a showing of excusable neglect or good cause, the magistrate or a judge of this court may extend the time for filing a notice of appeal upon motion filed not later than thirty days after the expiration of the time prescribed by Rule 4(a), Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.

In the event a timely motion for new trial is filed pursuant to Rule 59, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the time for appeal for all parties shall run from the date of the ruling on the motion.

(b) Service of the Notice of Appeal

The clerk of court shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof to counsel of record for all parties other than the appellant, or if a party is not represented by counsel to the party at his last known address.

(c) Record on Appeal

The record on appeal to a judge shall consist of the original papers and exhibits filed with the court and the transcript of the proceedings before the magistrate, if any. Every effort shall be made by the parties, counsel, and the court to minimize the production and costs of transcriptions of the record, and otherwise to render the appeal expeditious and inexpensive, as mandated by 28 U.S.C. §636(c)(4). If a transcript of the proceedings is desired the party shall designate those portions of the proceedings to be transcribed in the manner provided in Rule 10(b), Federal Rules Appellate Procedure.

(d) Memoranda

The appellant shall within forty days of the filing of the notice of appeal file a typewritten memorandum with the clerk, together with two additional copies, stating the specific facts, points of law, and authorities on which the appeal is based. The appellant shall also serve a copy of the memorandum on the appellee or appellees. The appellees shall file an answering memorandum within thirty days of the filing of the appellant's memorandum. The court may extend these time limits upon a showing of good cause made by the party requesting the extension. Such good cause may include reasonable delay in the preparation of any necessary transcript. If an appellant fails to file his memorandum within the time provided by this rule, or any extension thereof, the court may dismiss the appeal.

(e) Disposition of the Appeal by a Judge

The judge shall consider the appeal on the record, in the same manner as if the case had been appealed from a judgment of the district court to the court of appeals and may affirm, reverse, or modify the magistrate's judgment, or remand with instructions for further proceedings. The judge shall accept the magistrate's findings of fact unless they are clearly erroneous, and shall give due regard to the opportunity of the magistrate to judge the credibility of the witness.

(f) Appeals from other orders of a Magistrate

Appeals from any other decisions and orders of a magistrate not provided for in this rule should be taken as provided by governing statute, rule or decisional law.

Rule 5

Priorities in Performance of Magistrate's
Duties and in Assignment of Duties to Magistrates

A magistrate shall give priority to the following types of matters above other matters pending on his docket:

(a) Criminal matters of all types.

(b) Prisoner petitions for relief from custody under 28 U.S.C. §2254 and 2255.

(c) Any matter pending in an action which has been set for trial and in which delay might result in postponement of trial, including but not limited to, pretrial conferences and motions to maintain or dismiss class actions.

(d) Matters pending in actions brought pursuant to Title VII, Civil Rights Act of 1964.

(e) Social Security Reviews.

(f) Prisoner complaints challenging conditions of confinement under 42 U.S.C. §1983 and related statutes.

(g) Any other matter designated as a priority matter by a district judge.

A magistrate shall endeavor to dispose of all priority matters pending before him which are ready for disposition before reaching non-priority matters. References of non-priority matters to a magistrate shall be the exception, rather than the rule, and all such references shall be consistent with the magistrate's work load and his resulting ability to give reasonably prompt attention to non-priority matters.

Rule 6

Inherent Powers of District Judges

The specification of these rules of powers and duties of magistrates shall not be construed as vesting such powers or conferring such duties exclusively upon magistrates, but the district judges of this district retain their inherent powers to act in any and all such matters. Notwithstanding reference of any of the foregoing matters to a magistrate, a district judge retains the power to act therein if, in the opinion of the district judge, the proceedings will thereby be expedited or the efficient administration of justice advanced.

This rule shall become effective on February 1, 1982, and upon these rules becoming effective the former Miscellaneous Order No. 6 and all amendments thereto shall be and are repealed.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CONSENT TO DISPOSITION OF A CIVIL CASE BY A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(c), you are hereby notified that the United States magistrates of this district court, in addition to their other duties, may, upon the consent of all the parties in a civil case, conduct any or all proceedings in a civil case, including a jury or non-jury trial, and order the entry of a final judgment. Copies of appropriate consent forms for this purpose are available from the clerk of the court.

You should be aware that your decision to consent, or not to consent, to the referral of your case to a United States magistrate for disposition is entirely voluntary and should be communicated solely to the clerk of the district court. Only if all parties to the case consent to the reference to a magistrate will either the judge or magistrate to whom the case has been assigned be informed of your decision. The parties must consent within twenty days of the date answer(s) or responsive pleadings are filed by the defendant(s), unless otherwise permitted by the district court. Upon consent of all parties reference to a magistrate is subject to the approval and order of the district judge to whom the case is assigned.

The provisions of 28 USC §636(c)(3) and (4) permit alternative appeals procedures, either directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit or to the district judge that referred the case to the magistrate. An appeal to the district judge does not bar a party from thereafter appealing to the Fifth Circuit as provided by §636(c)(5). In the event that the parties consent to a trial before the magistrate, they must also agree to the method of appeal at the time the consent form is executed, unless otherwise permitted by the district court.
